As the native Long Islander poet Walt Whitman wrote, in his "Song of the Open Road",

*Afoot and light-hearted
I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose.*

St. Joseph's is a stop along the "open road" Whitman writes of. The road of life. When we leave here, we continue our journey along this road. Whether we enter a graduate program, or the business world, we will be all the more prepared to choose in which direction the road will lead us. And the number of choices is endless . . .

When our life first starts, most people follow the beaten path. We attend grammar school, junior high and high school. But then the choices set in: Do we go to college right away? Do we get a job, or even get married? Or do we choose a combination of these? Whichever it is, each choice brings with it other choices. A veritable potpourri of choices await us. Through much thought and preparation, notwithstanding SOME spontaneity, we try to choose wisely. Sometimes we succeed, sometimes we fail, but always we are moving on. Moving on to a world full of life, adventure and learning: learning about ourselves and the world we live in, moving on to bigger and better things.

St. Joseph's is a step in that journey, and though it will always be a part of us, now comes a time for the inevitable moving on. We, as seniors, have our whole life ahead of us. The world is ours- if we choose to take it. St. Joseph's College helps to prepare us for our journey through life- and for that we thank the college, the staff and faculty, and all those involved in our college experience. We hold these times and memories dear, and will look back on them with fondness. And so we take our leave. We go forth: where we can, as best we can, and as much as we can. We strive toward that ever elusive dream of happiness and contentment. Always we shall work toward it; always we shall be "MOVING ON".

You look marvelous!

Tuna fish again?

I know he's looking at me.

Hmm . . . interesting.

Is this seat taken?

Hang on baby, Friday's coming.

It's never crowded for breakfast.

What do you mean this is the Christmas dance?

Joe Cool

So she said . . .

Watch out, here she comes.

Take my picture, please.

TRAVELING

COMPANIONS

Is that new Coke, Classic Coke, Diet Coke or Cherry Coke?

Do you think they changed this stuff from last year?

He's the one.

Whatta ya mean I can't drop the class?

You did what . . . to whom?

Hi guys!

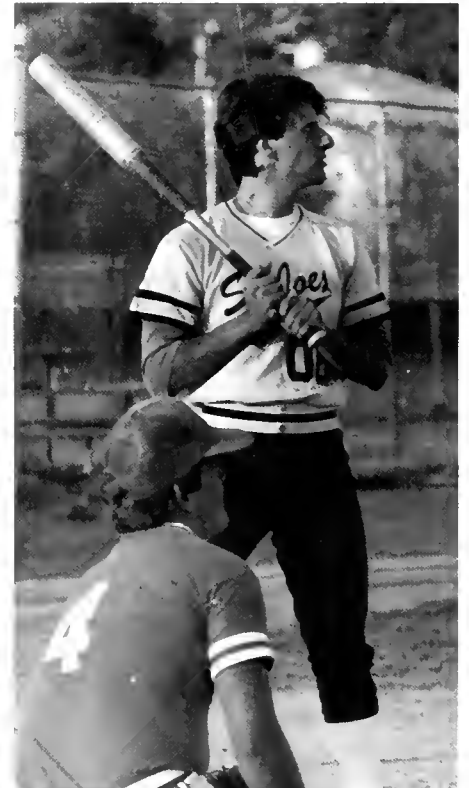

Whom shall I honor with my presence?

Hey, put that back!

There's a what in my apple?

Three bucks if you hit a home run.

I thought you were paying.

What are we doing here at 8:30 am?

Don't bother me.

How much did you cheat on your taxes?

Is this volleyball or kickline?

We saw that John!

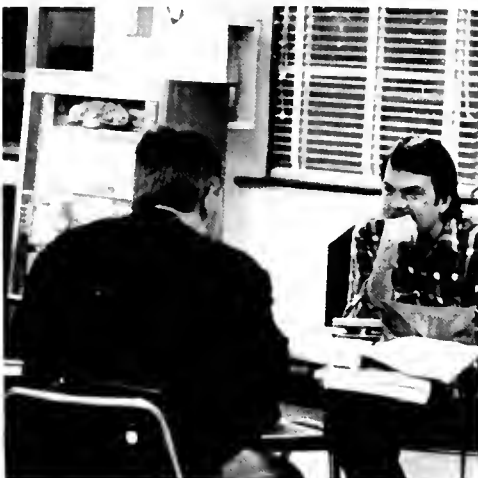

Do that again and I'll kill you!

How do you write a lesson plan for the letter "A"?

So this is college life

Eye contact is important

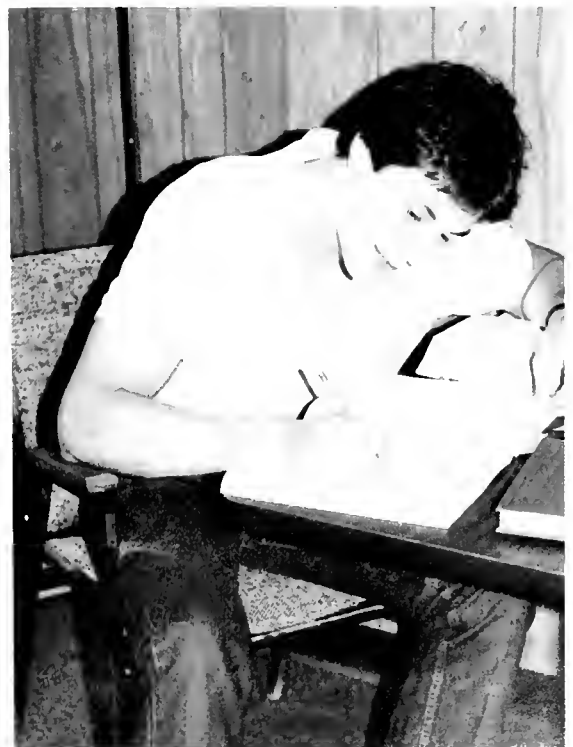

Is this guy for real?

Varsity Practice

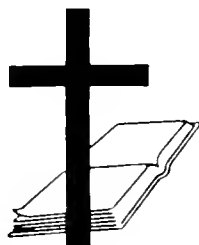

There comes a time in one's life when certain people touch us in very special ways. These people leave a mark on our very souls. This mark can never be suppressed or easily forgotten. As time goes by we begin to rely on these people and trust them as if they were part of a special family. We begin to realize that in the lowest times of our life, these people are present to show us the light at the end of the tunnel. These people also share in our happiest and proudest times. We share with them the joy of a job well done, and they award us with that ever-important "pat on the back". They are there for us when we need to be told we are right, as well as wrong, when nobody else will. We soon realize that we have a different, unique, and special love for this person. We know that life without this person would leave a vast emptiness and void that could never be filled again. We grasp at every moment shared with them and pray that these feelings of joy and fulfillment may last forever. However, we know that they cannot. When we part with these people we feel angry, hurt, and even forgotten. We know deep down that time can and will heal- if we let it. We soon begin to realize that these people are gifts that God has so graciously given us. Although these gifts don't always last for long, we feel privileged to have been blessed with them. We call these gifts, these people, our friends.

Sister Virginia passed away. She was one of these very special people - she was a gift from God. She was our friend. As Dean and Vice-President of St. Joseph's College, she was ever present and strong. She was always concerned, caring and loving. She was a person who dedicated her whole life to helping us experience all the joy and strength that education can bring. She was determined to make St. Joseph's College the very special, warm, and important learning establishment it is today. To her memory we dedicate Horizons 1986 and work to continue this tradition. Sister Virginia - you will be sorely missed. We will always love you and we will always remember you.

Well, we made it! After a long (seemingly endless) haul, Horizons '86 has arrived. Many, many, MANY thanks to all those who helped make this yearbook a reality. Extra special thanks goes to Diane Ripollone for service above and beyond the call of duty. (Would you like a cot and stove in the darkroom?) To the rest of the staff: thanks for always being ready to help and to Barbara Morell: enjoy your month or so of peace and quiet . . . it won't last long! To the Seniors of '86: we hope we have captured some of the best moments of our last year here . . . ENJOY!!!!

COACH FRANK B. MULZOFF

Coach Frank B. Mulzoff has served the college community for six years. His dedication to the sports program in St. Joseph's has propelled the basketball team to become a competitive force in collegiate basketball on Long Island.

Coach has made it possible for many other teams to be established within the program, and has given every athlete an opportunity to participate in sports. He has been a friend, companion, and teacher to many of us. We will miss you, Coach, you have taught us what the word "dedication" really means.

- John Ruskin

I, Georgette Marie Bancroft, give all my thanks to my family and to my Lord Jesus for guiding me through my four years here at SJC. Without your help, love, and support, I could not have accomplished the goals I have met.

I, Anne Marie Baione, leave the English Dept. my sincerest apology for being a Child Study Major.

I, Leslie J. Bauer, being of relatively sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following: To Carrie, I leave one hairless cat. To Paula, I leave one more semester of Latin America and a G.I. Josephine doll. To Tom, one more reign as "King Pedro." To Mary Chance, I leave all my unbalanced balance sheets. To Mike Blair, I leave memories of Math class, Ethics, and a drink at C.J.'s. To Tina, I leave fond memories of the appropriate "Get the hell out of here." To Nadine, I leave her Jack - to do with what she pleases. To Bobbie Santonastasi, I leave a "onetime" check for the tuition balance, and finally, To Cassie, I leave one "bippy" for her future usage, all my blisters from Shore Drive, and scuffing in the halls, but mostly I leave her with fond memories and dreams come true from a very special friendship, for without, my life at SJC wouldnt have been the same.

I, Susan Brady leave Anna Vinicombe memories of a la clase de espanol where it all started, early morning steps at 7-11 and Burger King, the graduation from Amaretto to melon balls to Alabama knockouts and suffering its consequences together, "cleaning up after parties," going from Eddie to Rick to Patrick to Roger and the special slumber parties where we shared many secrets. Always remember Mozambique, our midnight toasts to the Atlantic Ocean and Carribean Sea, many lunches at every place possible on Long Island and getting "scorched" in Puerto Rico. Thanks for being my Bobbsey Twin (are you two sisters) and sharing laughter as well as tears with sincere caring and understanding. To Annette, I leave memories of the nervousness and excitement of becoming college freshmen, the many basketball games we cheered and kicked at and a friendship that has grown over four years at St. Joseph's. To Mom and Dad, I leave all my love and thanks for everything. I couldn't have done it without you. To Jimmy, I leave my thanks for being the most special brother/friend anyone could ever wish for.

I, Diane Cheeseman (Lady Di), leave to the Happy Trails Club memories of initiation parties, dart games, road trips, and "our beach!"

I, Gerald Cestare, being of neurotic mind and round body to bequeath the following . . . To Sharon, I leave an ounce of common sense, Dinner at Chambers Inn and Mama Lombardis, a rose-a-month, 10 gallons of your vegetable dip, a list of 5000 things I can't believe you said in public, a golden wrapper from a Willy Wonka Bar, and my everlasting love. To Susan, 4 years worth of notes, a "real" pair of socks, one-third of a car seat, and an answer to the question "What does mean this?" To Jude, a Christmas ornament used as a gypsy earring. To Fred, the crutches he should have used with his borken ankle. To Keith, a REAL Halloween costume "which is good" and a year's supply of King Kans (that should last you a weekend!) To John, t(h)ree mamas that need doggin'. To Donna P., a new disc camera, your own apparel shop, and a stack of check requisitions. To Laura, the phone numbers of the only men in New York State you have not gone out with (all 6 of them!), 2 hour phone calls, and 2 years worth of Student Government minutes. To Chris V., dinner for 2 with you know who! To Chris-our V.P., my utmost sympathy in your position as President-only a lunatic could do it! To Joe I., unlimited visiting rights to my friend "Willy." To Colleen, I leave a five dollar gift certificate to Buster Browns' (that should buy you 10 pairs of shoes!) To Marie, a bottle of syrup-"You were right Marie!" To Joe S., a pair of zipperless pants. To Irene, a bag of jelly beans and an Antidote for "looks that kill!" To Tom W., a thirty-second dance spot on "Star Search." To Kevin, a year's supply of groceries (that should last you a week!) and a totally khaki green wardrobe. To Donna U., water moccasins, and my sympathy in going out with Kevin! To Pete VV., a softball team for gigolo's-cause everywhere you go, people know the part you're playing! To Chris, "When you least expect it . . ." To Audrey, a bottle of Stresstabs and a library seat dedicated in your name. To Angela, "An animal that has a special diet." To Florence, my hope for a pigpen complete with Mr. Pigleggi and many piglets. To Paula, a funny way to say your name and a bow and arrow to go with your Robin Hood boots. To Phyllis, Gina, and Ellen, all the ticket stubs from the Circle K raffles I never won. To Annette, a reduced admission price at all parties. To Sue and Anna, a fun ride in a jeep without doors. To Professor Sal Rumore, an answer to the question "What do you want to do with your life?" To all those who went before me: Jeannie, Vinnie, Paul, Mike, Kelly Ann, Carol Lee, Kathy P., and Laura Geelan LoManto, I leave fun memories of my years as an underclassman. To the Jotter Staff, autographed copies of ALL my columns. To the Yearbook staff, the longest last will and testament ever printed. To the library staff, a new rug to replace the one I wore out between Technical Services and the Music Room. To Maureen Cestare, old reruns of the "I Love Lucy Show" to watch when you get your hair done. To Marge, Marion, and Dotti, I leave 3 rocking chairs and a guaranteed spot in the Alzheimer's home for the Aging Student Service Employee—more importantly, the honor of working with a "Legend." To all my teachers, all the Sisters, the administration, and Staff, my sincere thanks for helping me to grow spiritually and mentally, for all the laughs, and for your help and support in my job as President. To all the friends I didn't have space for in this will, I leave you the greatest gift of all . . . the honor of knowing ME!! Finally, and most importantly, to my mother and father and my brother, Nick, I leave my thanks for your patience, support, and love during the four craziest years of all our lives. Without you I could never have done it!!!

I, Chris Cofaro, being of sound mind (no matter what anyone says!) and body, leave the following: First and foremost to Ang, all my love and craziness (hey, this is a package deal). Donna, a car with a self-adjusting clutch and all the happiness you deserve-practice makes perfect! Phyllis and Gina, I leave the both of you all of the smiles you've given me. Sharon, to you I leave a dark T-shirt (oh, those waterfalls!) To Chris C., I leave a stepladder for my throws from the outfield. To Keith, a chest protector for those grounders and that police badge you want. To Freddie, four tickets to the '86 World Series that the Mets will be in. To Joe L., a bigger ping pong paddle and many thanks for the friendship. To J.J., I leave anything you want. To Scott, lots of luck getting through the next two years and more of them funny pens of yours. To Pete, Hey Coach (you junkie M.F.!) what else can I leave you except the complete works by Richard Pryor. (So youse a man now, huh?) To Jerry, "the megaphone," my "what the hell" attitude. And to the rest of my teammates, a winning year in '86. To Audrey, lots of luck. You know how dentist can be! To all those not named but remembered in my heart, thanks for getting me through five, yes five, years here. Hey, Ang, wanna race to the doors?

I, Linda Costa would like to leave only good times for all the future graduates of SJC. To Eileen I leave a "HOT" night with Don Johnson (I only wish I could). To Dawn, I leave poltergeist and a semester without cuts. To the best organizational behavior group (Kitty, Donna, Linda, Eileen, and Brian) an academy award and Thanks!! Especially to Brian, I leave a map to the M.M.A. Lastly, I leave thanks to all my friends and family that supported and put up with me for four years.

I, Stacie-Ann Davis, leave John Bacon my ping pong paddle (he needs it). To Traci, I leave a round trip to Dallas. To Diane Rip., I leave a box of athletic tape, my hockey stick, and a pool table to practice on so maybe she could beat me someday!

I, Cynthia Dehnert, being of a somewhat sounder mind than when I started here . . . leave Antonia my only copy of Medieval Maxims of Friendship (translated from the Latin). I leave Carrie Poole her own thesis and her own room in my Syracuse apartment. I leave Lorraine Tuesday nights. The 4th and 5th period 9th graders-my most prized possession-I leave to Barbara "Killer" Kelly (aka "The Stare") with thanks. Most of all, to my family, love and thanks.

I, Robert Dell'Aquila, being of sound mind? and body do bequeath the following: To Al, a bottle of vitamin D (they count). To Steven D., the biggest gaggle of geese he's ever seen. To Sal, an abstract of the Stanley Cup. To Andy, my 1965 Sport Fury without a tune-up. To Mike, the power to overcome the infamous J.R. To Steven C., a used copy of "Don Juan." And to "Cupcakes," an endless supply of my own Hershey's kisses!

I, Angela Dieppa, leave you Chris my big pacer door, a key that fits, electricity that works, a late night scenic view, one dimple, many long phone conversations, an A in badminton, a smaller console, great talks, the first kiss, a bottle of wine, a big fire, and the bottom. I also leave all my love and much thanks for being a fantastic boyfriend. I leave Donna another koala, a clock set 1/2 hour early so we get there on time, a paper-mache project, a convertible Mercedes, a new road to drive on, a Visa card, but more than all that a friendship that is cherished and will last forever. Thanks for being a wonderful friend. I leave Mike and Audrey the best of everything and a happy future. I leave Sharon much thanks for being a Mom to Chris and for helping us get things together. I leave Jerry a special diet for these animals and a faster camera with an automatic picture taker.

I, Colleen M. Driscoll, would like to thank my mother and father for their love, understanding, encouragement, time and financial backing. I love you both very, very much. To my sister, Ginny, I leave all my earrings, a new job and a new boyfriend! (Only kidding, John) To John A., I leave a new lawnmower. To Steve B., I leave a chauffeur driven school bus and two bathroom seats to every b-way play! To my John C., I leave my heart filled with all my love!!! Thank you for everything S.J.C.!

I, Deborah Epstein, leave to Christopher and my family, my car, my possessions, and most of all my love! You gave me all the support, love, and guidance that made me what I am! Thank you!

I, Lori Farley, leave Caroline, one night at Mowbrays without getting into trouble. To Anne Marie Lutz, a date with F.M. To Diane Cheeseman, one Maavalous night of being "Ascaered!" To Sabrina Gallo, a real college social life forever. To Kim Buffa, nice normal friends at SJC. To Vicki, a day at the beach. To Pat Mott, a mermaid at the end of a rainbow and happy trails forever. To Denise Allen, a new set of darts. To Joe Palmieri and Billy Rielly, a date with the SJC cheerleaders. To Paula Martinez, a thesis. To Mike Rock, a bag of peanuts, a newspaper, a faculty parking sticker, a good night's sleep, a new haircut, visine, a night at Ocean Beach, all our wonderful memories and a great future with all my love forever.

I, Donna Fiore, leave Donna Dinnigan her Teddy Bear key chain so she can have her best friend back. To Tracy Vincenti, the power to get over the "agony" of her recent situations. To the Santonastasi family, all my love and thanks for filling these past few years with kindness and smiles. And to my family, my overwhelming thanks for supporting me.

I, Donna Garguilo, leave Angela breakfast at Bagel Den, 11:00 final exams not 11:30, 1,000 excuses for not going to class, "What floor?", a large bottle of aspirins and ear drops for all those midnight drives, a portion of my degree, CS 380, a super terrific friendship, and most of all, four of the best years of my life. I love you, friend! I leave to Chris, an interesting and unique friendship, a so-so racquet ball game, a memorable trip to the Smithaven Mall, 589-7537 anytime, dance class. To Mike, the great times out East.

I, Albert Guerra, to Sal I leave somontology, the S.S. Big and thesis dressing. To Bob I leave Y-hats, calves, 10 ways to fail this course and the Jozzim Jive. To Steve I leave 42nd Street, the empty radio cabinet, the leftover records, D's count and the Bassoon. To Janice I leave all my love, can of earthworms, a forever lifetime of Bugs Binny, the Flintstones, the Three Stooges and a devoted honey bear. To Mom, Dad, and Jerry I leave my last "I'm tired," "Len me a twenty," and a forever loving son and brother.

I, Denise M. Langille, thank my family for their love, support, and patience throughout my education. You're the best! I also want to thank my fiance for his love and support. You cheered me on when things got tough.

I, Clare Logan, bequeath to Pete Vardaro my alternator and morning coffee. To John Johnson, my ability to float, Diet Pepsi, the legs to the physics table, and products from organic. To Genine, my tape of "Eyes Without a Face." Paul, a bottle of sparkling wine. Judy, my hair. Sabrina, my philosophies of life. Connie, some barbiturates to administer to yours truly during movies. Diane, an automatic pilot to take you home and a watch to tell European time. C.C., a doggie bag for the other half of your meals. Anne Marie, another great Duster. Frank F., all the dirty glasswear. Dr. Hayes, my job at the "bank." Mrs. Stone, my recipe for coffee. Dr. Royston, the chicken on her shoulder. Dr. Boynton, my applause for a lab book and a colored shirt. St. Joe's, my condolences for not having me anymore.

I, Laura LoManto, being of almost sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Sharon: "It's 3am, not 2am." To Christine: "You hot mama, here's a patent on your laugh, ba ha ha!" To Marianne: Remember freshman year in Italian. To Donna (Polly): black go-go boots & knock 'em dead in the real world. To Fred & Keith: "MUSCLE MANIA," To Jerry: "I know you weren't being fresh, only very nice." To Susan: "It's been so long but how's about 34 more years of scoops." To Chris C.: "Go get 'em Prez!" To John: "Hello, boys!" To Sr. Margaret Jennings: If nothing else, I hope I gave you a laugh. To Marge & Marion: another great executive council. To Jamie: russet leaves and a staff job on MY magazine. To the "Nucleus": Bermuda & Christmas parties!

I, Mary Lee LoPreto, hereby bequeath to the following: Bunny, "Bustin' out of school . . .", whales and s xfers, still cruisin', Mr. Goodbars, spandex, and universals. Amy, still shopping, credit cards, and an 8 year Chinese friendship. Diane, Michael's Porsche. Donna, a nodding head. NoDoz for "certain" classes. Michael, the autobon, the world's greatest . . . To my family, the Lotto Jackpot and love and thanks for four special years. Everyone: Happiness.

I, Christine Marco, leave to Paul H: homemade piroghies (no sauerkraut), all self-fulfilling prophecies, and a timed trap door in 260 that automatically opens when you lecture overtime. To Bill B: free will, an army study that utilizes more than a frequency distribution, my good friend Bobby Merton, and a LITTLE guilt. I also leave you Max . . . may he break down at least once after I'm gone. To John H: one computer instruction manual ("To make life easier!"). To Mad Max: all my insecurities, my inferiority complex, and a student who doesn't pound on your keyboard. To Anne Marie: that gorgeous guy in the London underground. To Lady Di: the blue field, and cars that park on the wrong (?) side of the street. To you both, I leave "MEOW!" "Ladi "Ladies & gentlemen, please take your seats . . ." "Sorry," and my cot in London that kept flipping up whenever I sat on the edge. I also leave you all the happiness the future my bring—KNOCK 'EM DEAD! To Connie: a T-shirt that says "I'm Connie, she's Chris," my thanks for all your support and my friendship for the years to come. To Joski: backrubs, Dirk the Daring, and the date for our return to SJC in 1990. To my Dad: my apology for majoring in psychology. To Mom & Dad: a bulldozer for my room, and my thanks for your support and for NOT being parsimonious. And finally, to Mom, Dad, Tom & Pete: all my love and my gratitude for putting up with me at my worst.

I, Paula Martinez, being of relatively sound mind and body, leave the following: To Carrie, I leave movie nights, Thursdays at the Ground Round, a semester of bus tickets, a pair of "real" lips, a pair of dancing shoes, "Get out dat elevata, it fo freight ONLEI," some loud and funky clothes, "funky men rule!", a blackboard for our notes, and long phone convos.. To Traci, I leave the Lip Clique, lingerie parties and Dimension. To Sally Anne, I leave a "simply marvelous" millipede game with a lifetime supply of quarters, To Donna, I leave Juan, a pair of lips and a car repair shop! To Lori F., I leave a pair of chicken legs. To Colleen, I leave a case of hair spray and the gremlin voice. To Diane Rip.. I leave sunglasses so my clothes won't hurt her eyes. To Beth, I leave a bottle of St Joseph's aspirin for all her headaches. To Tom, I leave the secret of the lip clique. To Jerry, I leave the freshman investiture, rides home from the parties, someone to turn you upside down! To Jaime, I leave a night at Spanky's, ice scream! my secrets, long phone conversations and all my love because you're so special to me. To my family, I thank them for their infinite patience and love that has helped me get through school.

I, Salvatore Mascolo, of sound mind and body, leave the following: To Al, a package of chicken patties, a new Gold's Gym shirt and a bottle of fruit flies. To Bob, all my unfinished are drawings, two eggs scrambled with bacon on a roll, and the thesis dressing. To Steve, I leave my Math 201 book and all the homeworks, my thesis book and most of all the thigh.

I, Sharon Messina, leave the following: To Jerry: I leave a full tank of petro (on me), a large vodka Collins to be drunk only on an empty stomach, a day filled with extra hours so you can get everything done and still pick me up on time, and my thanks for a wonderful 8 months of great times together. To Freddie and Keith: I leave my permission to use the "F word" only when it's absolutely necessary. To my bank buddie, Susan, I leave 2 brand-new contact lenses, a supply of passion wine coolers, shoes with proper heels, and my thanks for being a great friend. To Audrey: I leave a lifetime supply of mint Milanos and ice cream and my thanks for always being there. To Patti: I leave a large dose of school spirit, an unlimited subscription to Highlight Magazine, and my thanks for being a SUPER PERSON!! To Chris Coffaro: I leave a bottle of Pepto-bismol, bananas infested with ants, and a normal semester with 12 credits.

I, Susan Murray, leave the following: To "my only friend": thanks for being just tooo good. To FJW: I leave IBM and an answer to the question "Who's this?" To Keith (the best night manager): a smaller set of ribs and Florida hair. To Gerald: a ferret, a weasel, a colander, and a bunk-bed ladder. To Sharon (bank buddy): a dead man and many lunches at BQ. To Laura: Great Britain and "fush" Guidos. To Chris Velez-quez: three Vito's and an owner of a wine cooler company. To Chris "Paul Bunyan" Carroll, I leave the book "101 Excuses to Tell a Cop for Being Pulled Over on the Side of the N.J. Turnpike." To John S: the D you wanted in Accounting. To Patti: Sun. night study sessions. To the Merrill Lynch Crew: The "F.Z." and a share of the millions I'll make.

I, Antonia Pannacchione, not being of sound mind, do hereby leave the following: To Cindy, all of my SMB's lesson plans, "get me through Tuesdays," and the front dented fender of my car and deli chips. To Carrie, some non-prudish clothers and a one-way ticket to LeMoyne. To Tony, Joe, and Bill, I leave the next semester and LOTS of luck. John S., lunch someday I promise! Sr. M. Jennings, the small cardboard box in the corner of my room with thesis in it. To all my friends & family, my love and thanks for your understanding during thesis. And to Steven, you have all I am. What more could I leave you? I love you dollface.

I, Donna L. Percio, bequeath the following: to Kathy: long talks at the Bluff, wine coolers, "Aggravation at Ichabod's," vacations, 5:30 arrivals home and a man to fit the resume. To Jerry: a "pictureless" trip to Europe, carpools, SG meetings, a private audience with the Pope, my black go-go boots and "true" friendship. To Laura: the men of the 80's, the infamous "delivery man," and a bound hardcover copy of the SG minutes. To Chris: all 4 executive positions, Ash Wednesday and an available date to all dinner dances. To Colleen: a man with "cool" hair, Toby, and some excitement at SJC. To John: computers, a true love affair, specials at El Torritos, and a planned camping trip. To Phyllis and Gina: kickline memories, "private parties" & the C.R. Playhouse. To Denise: a "perfect" boyfriend, dance conventions, and one more exciting college year. To Chris, Patty, Sue, Keith, Freddy, Vinny, Laura, Jerry, Paul, Florence, Jude, Jeannie, Carolyn, Rory, & Joe: pre-parties, post-parties, wine & cheese parties, Christmas parties, and just plain PARTIES!!! Donna's apparel shop, nights at Dimensions, Mt. Fuji dinners and impressive resumes from all OUR hard work, To Joe D: your "gay?" friend, Budweiser in MY office, the play, set building and Friday night parties. To Christine, Lynn, Holly, and Kathy: the Camel girls camping trip, Boardy Barn, and HOT CHOCOLATE! To all the many friends at SJC I leave my love, frienship, and happy memories always. May we always keep in touch and remember the fun times we had at good 'ole SJC.

I, Annette Plichta, leave the following: To Sue, I leave memories of cheerleading, kickline, and memorizing essays. Can you believe it's over? Best of luck to you, kiddo. To Billy, I leave the date February 20th and the song "Take Me With U." I love you with all my heart and plan on doing so forever- you're the best. Finally, to my parents, I leave a great big thank you for the millions of things you've done for me in my life— I love you more than you know.

I, Margherita Proscia, leave Joanne, "If I don't go to the bathroom soon, I'll turn green and die," To Kathleen, all of the nail pieces all over the floor and all of the wonderful times during "our" summer. To Mary and Kathleen, the foreigners at Pepperfield's. To Mary, Joanne, and Kathleen, all of our uniforms. To Mary, I leave you happiness, our forever friendship and all of the good and bad memories that we shared. And to Rickie, the man I love, I leave evenings in Two Morrow's, Stonybrook, N.Y.C., and the Seaport, but most of all, all of the laughter and memories that you have made so wonderful and our future together.

I, Deirdre Regan, leave Chapter 2 of my thesis to any Child Study major in search of studies. I leave my computer programs to anyone who can figure them out. I leave my career at Kings Park Laundromat to anyone who wishes to take over. Although happy to graduate, I reluctantly leave the familiar friendly face of St. Joe's staff to the oncoming freshmen.

I, Diane Ripollone, leave Sister Pat with peace and quiet and all my medications and bandages. To Ann Hansen I leave all the lonely nights she will spend without me. To Bobbie and Joe I leave my adoption papers. To Monica I leave my smelly sweat suit she always wanted. To Lois Cotton I leave one sum of thanks for all services rendered. To Sister Joan Ryan I leave a whip and chain for future historians. To RESA I leave my bloomers in a twist. To the volleyball team I leave my number and all my bruises. To Dotties I leave a box of M & M's. To Marge & Marion I leave all the headaches from the Athletic Association. To Martha I leave a new ashtray for her car. To St. Joseph's College . . . I leave.

I, Virginia Romanek, leave my love and gratitude to my husband, Rich, who started everything when he suggested, "Why don't you think about going to college?"

I, Liz Slabowski, leave Eileen a shovel and a true observation. To Ann and Mary I leave many memories of years gone by, lying and swearing to it, weekends beginning on Wednesday, our dreams realized and our future just beginning. Here's to the rest of our lives—I leave you a friendship ending.

I, John Stanek, leave a brand new clown costume to clown one (Fred) and clown two (Keith). I, John, leave Sue a tape of "Hello Boys" and one more "Murray." I, John, leave Jerry C. "T(h)ree" megaphones for the ball games. I, John, leave Diane R. a lifetime membership at Lucille Roberts, and all of my love. I, John, leave Elaine L. the biggest ruby ring and a new job. I, John, leave Pete V. the saying "Meatball" (carry it on). I, John, leave Laura L. the Miss Universe title.

I, Genine Marie Trama, leave the following to my friends, Claire (Clare Bear), I leave a very sexy male dancer complete with handcuffs who also happens to be very rich, to J.J. a master key to all the drawers in both the biology and chemistry labs, To Pete V. the memory of a bottle of Peppermint Schnapps, only the memory, O.K.? TO MY FRIENDS John and Kathy all the memories we've shared during our time together: good times and bad- remember them as you wish, they're all very much part of who I've become. To my very two best friends, Mom and Nicole, all my love. Thank you for being the part of me I could never live without. To the teachers who've seen me through these growing up years . . .

I, Prisco Vadero, being of slightly sound (due to coaching) mind and body, do leave the following people some of my possessions. Chris Carroll, my coaching knowledge because he has none, J.J. some fruit fly jars and fly nap, Chris Coffaro you can play the outfield without me, To Keith a passenger side seat belt that works, To Fred a tryout with the METS, To Claire an unbreakable lab equipment set, To John Stanek a new tapper and to Jerry, the "BOSS", his lifetime dream, to play softball on the team this summer.

I, Christine Velez, leave to Chris, a G.P.A. of 3.999, a pair of dancing shoes, and a very special friendship, To Tom a trip to Colombia, the winning LOTTO numbers, high energy, and a pair of choos, for Gerry, a real friend, to Sharon a night of wild craziness-Break loose woman, for dear Webba a "Yo little Brother" record, To Maggot the fagot I leave photogeneity, to Susan a pair of irreparable, unholeable, anti-tearable contact lenses. BaHaHa. For luscious Laura, I leave a telephone script Monday nights, wonderful memories of Captain P., a December tan a new pair of Ciao black sneakers, a Dahling Guido, a PLB of your very own, Lauren and a future of fun, fun, fun!!! For Colleen Mary, and Eileen I leave fun bus stories and Wah-Lum's "Let's do lunch!

I, Traci E. Vicente, leave Paula my most conservative suit, for one day she "might" (Hopefully) wear it, to Donna a clown face mask to wear for the days "the face" appears, to Carrie my 1st friend at SJC a huge amount of congratulations, we finally made it The five year plan, to Daryl and Kelly my thanks for introducing me to the Boardy Barn and to Stacie what a pair nothing can stop us now!

I, Anna Vinicombe, leave Sue Brady a "St. Joseph's College" Survival Kit complete with pistachio nuts,, a 10 pack of gum "some kind of chocolate, Amaretto, a can of hairspray, two turkeys on a roll with lettuce- one with tomato, and of course a pinwheel. But most of all I leave her my best memories of St. Joseph's I leave her my friendship that although doesn't go back very far-has grown the past two years into the kind of friendship that it takes most people a lifetime to form.

TAKE TIME TO REMEMBER

*Take time to remember
It is the refuge for experience
Take time to anticipate
It is the dream of the future
Take time to search
It is the source to new discoveries
Take time to pursue ideas
It is the course to a better tomorrow
Take time to give
It is too short a day to be selfish
Take time to compete
It is the chance to show your true self
Take time to laugh
It is the music of the soul
Take time to be friendly
It is the road to happiness
Take time to pray
It is the greatest power on earth*

*Make each day the best day of the year,
For tomorrow is not here yet,
Yesterday is gone,
And the present is almost around the corner.
Make the most of your happiness now
So time can make today
One of the best memories for tomorrow.*

Who invented tax forms anyway?

Go ahead, make my day!

Don Johnson, watch out!

California Girls

Oh, go away!

Leave me alone, I'm meditating.

You call that a mustache?!

Raise your hand, if you're Sure.

No applause, just throw money!

Hey, are you going to Spanky's Sunday?

FRIEND, YOU ARE

MORE A PART

OF ME

THAN MYSELF

We opened a book . . . once.

An open letter to our daughter Stacie-Ann:

And my sister, Stacie-Ann:

And my granddaughter Stacie-Ann:

And my niece, Stacie-Ann:

How proud we all are of you today, this special day of your graduation from College!! We've all been through your studies, successes and sports with you, even when you were attending College in Florida. Since you first started elementary school, right through Junior High, High School and your three colleges, we've all been so very proud of you!! Because, you have never let us down. You've always given 100% of yourself with your efforts and the results have always been proven by your final results. Your marks bear witness to the fact of how hard you try along with your music and athletic achievement, especially with the Volleyball bear the mark of a true champion competitor.

We know how frustrating it can get at times, the routine, the studying, the practices, etc. But, today is the end result, the fruit of your labors and we all want to thank you for making it happen and for having us share in it with you.

God bless you always, our darling and know how very much we all love you.

Thank you Stacie.

*What more could I
Ask of you
Than what you have Already given:
Your laughter and dreams
And worries and schemes
In a word:
Yourself.
Your friendship is
The best gift
I could ask
Because it will Never grow old,
Never fade,
Never become just
A memory, but
Will live on Forever . . .*

REMEMBER WHEN

Georgette Marie Bancroft...We began as freshmen 4 years ago? 1986 seemed centuries away. Well, it has arrived and we are through. I pray Jesus' blessings over the class of '86 and I thank Him for good friends and great fun. When times get hard, remember that Jesus is always a help in times of trouble.

Leslie J. Bauer...They told you the course you needed for graduation would be offered next semester...then it wasn't.

Susan Brady...All the times we smiled at nothing and laughed at everything and the times I lied and you would swear to it. Thanks for being there and for being the most special friend anyone could be. You're welcome to share my rainbow anytime, Sweetie! (Anna)

Gerald Cestare...I will always remember trips to BQ, Mickey D's, Wendy's, bagel runs, Florida, A Greece and Rome tour, bu bunk bed ladders and colanders, King Kans, "not being fresh but being very nice," "greater honer," Atlantic City, Prince, Bruce, and Sting, "Tap dancing bag ladies and mobile homes," pre-party parties and post-party parties, broken ankles and Halloween Bashes, Candlewood Lake and large tube-like things, a surprise 21st birthday party, being the king of Valentine Dance, Florida hair, Youth Focus retreats, racing someone's duece and a quarter down Jericho Turnpike in my Trans Am, being tortured in a friend's pool, watching a friend fall down the steps 8 times in one week, Dimensions, Manhattans, "Dern" Diner, Drive Ins, Friendly's, and tailgate parties, seeing an army guy at Waves, breaking a Disk Camera, "Gold Stars," throwing up in every state from Florida to New York, turning a friend upside down, throwing her in the elevator and sending her to third floor, and being elected President for two terms (I must have done it for my resume!), and the best four years of my life!!

Linda Costa...Hurricane Gloria hit and St. Joseph's College was the only one open. It was High School Graduation and you thought you'd never make the next four years of college. You gave your first oral report...Ah!! Remember when you first started to believe that you were really going to graduate!!

Robert Dell'Aquila...St. Joseph's College closed down because of the monstrous snowstorm?...Neither do I.

Deborah Epstein...The blizzard of '84 struck and we hiked over to the "G.R."? We stomped through trails just to have ourselves an evening out! Well, it was worth it, wet, cold, and hungry...We have a memory!!

Ann-Marie Diezta: Our not so serious but always funny kickline: those "Thursday nights, always dancing, Mom, Dad and my wonderful family always being there for me, Charlie's love and security, my very special tyoist-M.F., the valuable things I've learned, crazy times I've had, and the changes I've been through and most of all the special friends whom I've had by my side through it all - "together forever", and to get through the rough times always remembering to "It just doesn't matter!" Thanks to All.

Donna Fiore: We first met and had to contend with the problems of what others would think, All the laughs and good times we shared with our friends, I hope you remember, because having you only made me realize how lucky I was, and how much I valued the love and fun I've shared with my friends all these years. I will remember how special you made these years!

Albert A. Guerra: Bob showed off his massive right peck, I did theory 2, the 12:00 feedings, study groups would turn into party groups, we used the terms "the air is stiff" and "D's count", Finally all the good times in the cafe., Janece's Jotter office and St. Joseph's College.

Claire Logan: Mrs. Stone laughed at John Cassera's slide during an examl, J.J. fell off his chair during a histo examl, J.J. got results, In physics, Chris C. had modified jelly donuts, there was a fire in general chemistry, Pete went swimming at the docks, Pete and J.J. bartended? Great words like "spleen, reflex, Grignarel, Seminar".

Mary Lee Preto: We used to think that everyone who had already graduated from college was "so old".

Christine A. Marco: I got lost going to Harrod's one hour before the play...Connie and I wore the same outfits to school 2 days in a row...On the night of our accident Diane said to the police officer, Now you know what we look like when we get out of the shower..., "Passing Oreo cookies between the cars with a total stranger while driving home & he offered us some coffee.

Genine Marie Trama: I was younger and very unsure of myself? You told me not to worry, with time would come self-confidence, when I admitted my fear of failure? You told to trust in my talents and abilities, they would never let me down, when I thought I was just another student? You reminded me of the friendship we've built the years. Thank you if I ever get to where my dream is I'll rememver it was you who pushed me in the right direction.

Prisco Vadero: Coaching the greatest team ever, The fun of the softball team, with the best guys a coach could ask for, is something I'll never forget, Thanks guys for two terrific seasons, and thanks to the rowdy fans who supported us. Let's GO METS!

Christine Velez: Keith remember when I bit your boobie, Laura and Sue remember when we revealed our first impressions.!

Traci E. Vicente: The LIP-CLIQUE came into existence, if he only knew, we waited for that knight in shining armor and he never showed up, Mom and Dad, Thanks for all your love and support, I never thought I'd make it!

Anna Vinicombe: We wanted to study in Michael's apt. and we couldn't figure out how to turn on the lights, when you went to get your blow dryer out of the closet, and when we went to the beach and fell off the fence, Always remember the cruise & our glasses on the bottom of Caribbean Sea.
